

Save the Bees - Save the Earth

Akwesasne Pollinator Forum 2019

Wednesday, Ohiarí:ha/June 12th 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Hogansburg-Akwesasne Volunteer Fire Department
Station 1. 1817 State Route 37, Akwesasne, NY 13655

Cost is $10 collected at the event, lunch is provided.

There will be a tour of the Agriculture Program (farm) at the end of the day. Bring proper attire.

To register or for additional information, contact Wayne Samphier at the Saint
Regis Mohawk Tribe Environment
Division (518) 358-5937 extension: 138 or email: wayne.samphier@srmt-nsn.gov.

Save the Bees – Save the Earth
Akwesasne Pollinator Forum 2019

Forum Agenda: (subject to change without notice)

8:00 – 8:30: Coffee and Snacks.

8:30 - 8:45: Introductions and Safety Briefing - Wayne Samphier - Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe Environment Pesticide Technician.

8:45 – 9:00: Opening by Angello Johnson - Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe Environment Forestry.

9:00 – 9:50: How to build a Pollinator habitat - Dr. Elizabeth Lamb

9:50 – 10:00: Break

10:00 – 10:50: Pollinator Pals with Potsdam State University, Local Living Venture and SRMT Environment. Ray Bowdish, Chelle and Wayne Samphier

10:50 – 11:00: Break

11:00 – 11:45: Cornell University Landscape Pests by Paul Hetzler - Cornell Extension St. Lawrence University.

11:50 – 1:00: Lunch

1:00 – 1:50: Restoration of Pollinator Habitat through Brownsfields - Julia

1:50 – 2:00: Break

2:00 – 2:50: Bee keeping and our Native Pollinators/Leaf Cutter and Honey bees Tasha Guatney, Wayne Samphier

2:50 – 3:00: Break

3:00 – 3:50: Tasha Guatney - Blair Farm Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe Agriculture Presentation.

3:50 – 5:00 Field Tour: Blair Farm Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe Agriculture Program.